07-2021	NPTEL	I have paid complete fees and appeared in six examinations held by NPTEL in Dec 2020 and I hereby request NPTEL to kindly provide the following information related to the exams held in December 2020 because I think there have been some serious mistakes in an evaluation done, either automatically or manually. All the marks lie in a particular range and this is when the exams are a combination of various disciplines. This is generally not common for a human to have a similar degree of command in all the various disciplines. Kindly provide the following information 1. Question papers readable in the English language and Latin Script for the given roll numbers along with the answer key in readable format for the exam and roll numbers mentioned below.	The question papers or answers cannot be shared in the required format as per the NPTEL Project implementation Committee policy. The candidate may choose to come to the nearest IIT and we can arrange for him to view the softcopies of questions and answers. This is done so as to ensure question paper integrity.
		Show the responses given by me (examinee) and the marks allotted per response for all the question papers of the below-given roll numbers. These must be in a readable format in the English language and Latin script.

		Is it fair to use gate 2019 electrical engineering marks instead of score as it was single session exam for recruitment?
		If gate examination is held in single session for two years does recruitment can be done on basis of gate marks for both years instead of gate score as done in MTech admissions on basis of score.
		Is normalization is practically possible for two year gate exam results?

291-2021	Academics	A game is being played by all IITs of India in PhD admission an all IITs are involved in it. First of all online form has to be filled for admission to PhD followed by shortlist. All game starts after shortlist is done. Before the interview and exam starts, these people play the game in making us fill up of Google form or ask over phone that – "Are you interested in doing PhD"? This can be seen in many IITs. The form is filled by me to do Ph.D. They reject straightaway if the internet or network is not working by mistake and do not consider till interview or exam. Kindly stop this type of reverse game of Ph.D running in IITs. The form filled in online only may be considered valid and after being shortlisted, examination should be taken directly. The brokerage may please be stopped. The IITs who do this middle man job are IIT Madras, IIT Bombay, ITI Gandhinagar etc. The exam should be conducted after filling up the online form and payment of fees whenever shortlist is prepared/ready.	This is not an information as defined under section 2(f) of RTI Act 2005. However, you may pl. refer https://research.iitm.ac.in/ for MS/Ph.D admission process.
